

Nitti donates safety shoes to the Salvation Army

Nitti Safety Footwear, a Singaporean safety footwear brand with global distribution donates safety shoes to Red Shield Industries.

Singapore, 15-September-2011

As part of a continuous effort to give back to the community, Nitti Safety Footwear has donated 349 pairs of safety shoes and boots to Red Shield Industries, part of the Singapore Salvation Army. The shoes will be well used when volunteers of Red Shield Industries collect donated goods ensuring their feet are well protected and comfortable.

"We're glad to be able to support this organisation and ensure that their volunteers are safe while doing their job and serving the community" commented Sebastien Bruggeman, Sales Director at Nitti Safety Footwear when the goods were picked up.
